In that District, and Work is at a Complete Standstill.

Shimoldin, Pa., Sapt. 19.—The tieup of the mines in this section of the anthractice coal region is even more complete than it was Monday. Less men reported for work, and the breakers could not have been operated if the companies had so desired. It is a conservative extinate to say strike in this region. Everything was quiet Tuesday, with the exception of a few personal squabbles and a slight sensation at M. Carmel in the morning, brought on by some mischlevous breaker boys. The London Papers' Comment.

The London morning pures have little but praise for what is called Germany's "admirable note." The Times goes so far as to wish that the result for making such a proposal belonged to Great Britain.

The Morning Post alone in a cogent and well reasoned editorial points out a grave objection, namely, that if the real authors and instignation of the uprising should prove to expected that they will deliver themselves up, and that if the Chinese government should be designated as guilty, it would be under the ban of the powers, a condition of things only terminable by the conquest of Chines government shoult producing a new government.
